PARTNERSHIP IN OUTREACH AND SERVICE THAT PROMOTE DIVERSITY AND INCLUSION

Dr. Juarez has formed partnerships with community-based organizations and stakeholders to involve them in a variety of research & service projects. Examples of these partners include:

- MAO organic farms: Partnership to recruit individuals and evaluate the impact of a youth leadership program in health and economics (Funding by HMSA/HMSA Foundation Project)
- AHARO Network of federally Qualified Health Centers: including the Wai‘anae Coast Comprehensive Health Center and the Waimanalo Health Center on O‘ahu, Bay Clinic and Hamakua-Kohala Health Center on Hawai‘i Island, and Moloka‘i Health Center on Moloka‘i. Along with the health centers, Dr. Juarez and the PAAC team have been able to expand COVID-19 testing capacity in underserved communities in the state of Hawaii. (Funding by RADx-UP U54-MD007601-34S2)

- Hawaii Department of Education, Public and Charter Schools in the State of Hawaii: To expand the PAAC community-based educational intervention and COVID-19 testing at select schools. (Funding by 1OT2HD108105-01)
- Hawaii Alzheimer Disease Initiative: To evaluate the Impact of HADI's dementia friends intervention and look at community-based intervention. (Funding by National Asian Pacific Center on Aging)
- City and County of Honolulu: To develop the "back on the wave" intervention, whose goal was to provide education to businesses during the COVID-19 crisis, and look at their Economic impact of COVID-19 (Funding by City and County of Honolulu)
- Over a dozen Chambers of Commerce in the state of Hawaii: To study the impacts of Hawaii vaccination mandates on small businesses on increasing COVID-19 vaccination in the state of Hawaii and the economic impact (Funding by NIH RADxUP)
- Hispanic Chamber of Commerce Hawaii: Dr. Juarez has served as a founding member and treasurer of the non-profit since 2019, whose goal is to strengthen Hawaii's Hispanic Business Community and Fostering Economic, Social and Cultural Development for all.
- Hawaii Integrated Analytics: In addition to these partnerships, Dr. Juarez and Dr. Alike Maunakea (JABSOM) founded Hawaii Integrated Analytics (www.HIA.llc), a mission-led company located at the Manoa Innovation Center that works with a variety of community-based organizations to show that healthcare doesn't always take place in a doctor's office. With the support of HIA, they continue supporting over a dozen community-based organizations, including the Hawaii Island food bank, We are Oceania, the Sustainable Living Institute of Maui, etc., to understand and measure their impact on health.
